Volunteer Ministry Outreach Assignment:

A requirement of this course is that students take on a Volunteer Ministry Outreach Assignment involving two hours of ministry outreach somewhere in their community. This assignment was described previously in the introduction to the course section of this study guide. It is suggested that students complete two hours of volunteer ministry sometime over the next 3 weeks. Students will document their ministry experiences by completing the Volunteer Ministry Outreach Form located at the back of this study guide.

Students attending this course live or by Internet will submit the Volunteer Ministry Outreach Form as part of the class session in week seven. Students enrolled in the Internet course or the DVD Home Study course will include the Volunteer Ministry Outreach Form with their Reflection Paper and Final Open-Book Exam and submit by week seven. Volunteer Ministry Outreach Forms may be submitted in person, by email to school@oralroberts.com, or by regular mail to Dr. Jeff Ogle, P.O. Box 2187, Tulsa, Oklahoma 74102.

Week Six:

List below any key ideas you gleaned from Dr. Roberts' class session this week. Include new ideas, testimonies, or items which spoke to your spirit.

Reflection Paper Assignment:

This study guide leads students in self-reflection activities each week. One of the major assignments for week six is for the student to review all the weekly self-reflection activity notes and write a brief reflection paper. It is suggested that students not write the paper until week six to allow several weeks' worth of notes to draw upon. The paper is due in week seven. The paper should be one to two pages long, typed, double-spaced, with one-inch margins all around. The paper should include a paragraph answering each of the following questions:

- Why did you enroll in The Holy Spirit's Work Today?
- How have you grown spiritually during this course?
- Describe the practical ministry experience you gained during this course (praying for others and allowing the Holy Spirit to manifest gifts in your life, etc.).
- What is/are the key thing(s)/item(s) you will take from this course? What has most impacted your life?
- Do you have a testimony to share concerning something that has happened to you or others during this course? If so, please share it now.
- Do you have suggestions for improving this course for future students?
